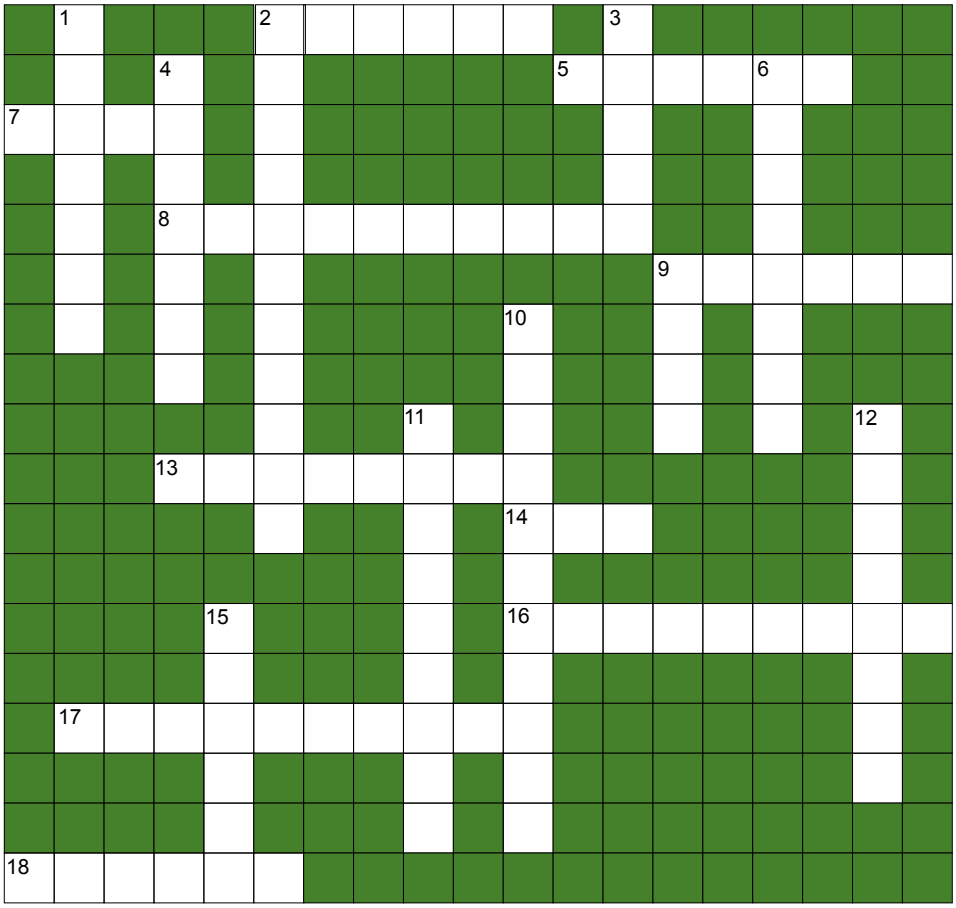
ODP Crossword Puzzle



ACROSS

2. Term for an incorrect reported number of sites, unreviewed, or errors in a category.
5. Two web pages/sites which are identical to each other.
7. Refers to numerous improper submissions of one or more related URLs, often to improper categories.
8. Categories which contains only @links and other crosslinks, and are otherwise stipulated to be empty, created for navigational purposes. (Hyphenated).
9. This a method of linking from one category to another, and is used when the category being linked to couldn't logically be a sub-category of the first.
13. Method of contacting fellow editors, or groups of editors.
14. Acronym for a pyramid based marketing scheme.
16. Automated link checker that marks erroneous URLs red.
17. A permission granted to editors which allows them access to catmv and other power tools within a specific category.
18. A secondary URL (generally much shorter) that either redirects, acts as an doorway page, or uses cloaking to conceal the existence of the real URL.

DOWN

1. Refers to all categories of a certain language (e.g. Arts, Business, Sports) which organize sites primarily by their topic, as distinguished from the Regional category
2. Type of permission which allows editors to concentrate on new submissions.
3. Websites which allows the content to be edited by anyone.
4. Graphics that can be used in forum posts to indicate an emotion / expression.
6. The hierarchical structuring of knowledge about things by subcategorizing them according to their essential qualities.
9. Erroneous URLs that have been flagged by a link checking tool.
10. A short Javascript program that is intended to be contained with a bookmark in the user's browser.
11. The main editing interface, containing links to your categories, links to the editor forums, access to logs, etc.
12. A page found somewhere "deep" within a site.
15. A global, decentralized system of newsgroups.